

The Trio Infernale (Bel's song)

Original: Miss American Pie (Don MacLean)

Text: Daniela Festi (2001)

A long, long time ago I can still remember the first time that I met this guy.
And I knew if I had the chance that I could make this local dance and maybe we'd be happy for a while
We spent the night with drinks and sweets and ended in a hotel suite and then the world was rocked - he was - to drunk to be shocked
We both knew, t'was just an affair. I left the planet and he stayed there
I went to the navy, cut my hair. And that's how all begun.

Bye, bye, to the infernal tri, well we never stayed together for a very long time
but you can't say, we never gave it a try, and I'll remember you till I die,
I'll remember you till I die.

Three years later on Relentless I met Derek and the 'Ice Princess'.
He was a man and I seemed to be.
He said: "Hi Bel, how are you? Let me introduce to you:
This is Robyn, good ol' pal from the academy."
Guess he tried to shock her as I did, 'cause she never met an hermaphrodit
But I thought "don't think twice", and I tried melt this ice
Well the best year of my live was that and the best friends that I ever had
But my work was calling and I obeyed. That was my worst mistake.

Bye, bye, to the infernal tri, well we never stayed together for a very long time
but you can't say, we never gave it a try, and I'll remember you till I die,
I'll remember you till I die.

And after ten years we three met again at this place on Cillian, Derek was a captain now.
Robyn was a Crimson Wing, and I was changed to a mindless thing
But with a lot of work, you just don't know.
But something melted deep inside as I had to save Robyns life.
We started once again and took this second chance
We had fun and love and all this stuff, but we both knew, this is not enough.
But after all, one year of love is better than a live time alone.

Bye, bye, to the infernal tri, well we never stayed together for a very long time
but you can't say, we never gave it a try, and I'll remember you till I die,
I'll remember you till I die.

And there we were all in one place, on a cruise ship through outer space which changed again our live
A nightmare came from history and bad luck hit us just as we tried to solve the problems and survive
And as Robyn wrote this bad report, they cited Derek before the court
She said she had a reason, but I couldn't stand the treason
And the man I admire the most was disenchanted and left his post
He caught the last train for the coast that's how the story ends.

Bye, bye, to the infernal tri, well we never stayed together for a very long time
but you can't say, we never gave it a try, and I'll remember you till I die,
I'll remember you till I die.
